

Our products last, our designs last, our relationships last. That consistency is the one thing that we’re most proud of. We stand behind everything we make. But note that our products require care if they are going to be used the way they are intended. Our items will last even longer if you take good care of them.

That’s why we have developed a complete shoe care range with SneakerLAB®, a premium supplier of eco friendly and effective cleaning formulas. Hence its harmless ingredients, their product is fully biodegradable and does not damage the natural features of leather, rubber and textile.

About

Founded in 2010 in Amsterdam, ETQ derived under the mindset of eliminating over-accessorized branding and focusing primarily on letting the quality of the product speak for itself. Read more
